Thirty-eight out of Forty-one Voters
Attended the Election. Fifteen

Voted Against Incorporation

At the election held yesterday in Kingsport 38 out of 41 registered electors cast their votes, 23 being in favor of incorporation and 15 against.

A few of the anti-incorporators favor incorporation under the name of North Daytona and others want the settlement incorporated with Daytona. A few of the residents seem to be satisfied to let the present state of affairs continue, believing that it would be better to incorporate at a later date.

Reception by Mrs. Gille.

Mrs. W. F. Gille gave a card party and reception yesterday afternoon at in honor of Mrs. Stillman, of Pensacola who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gule.

About thirty guests were invited and the afternoon was spent in contest for the prizes offered at progressive euchre. The house was attractively decorated with palm and flowers for the occasion and, at the completion of the game, refresh-

DAYTONA TO HAVE FINE STREETS

Such is the Proposed Plan of the City Council. Rock Crusher Has Been Purchased.

At the meeting of the City Council Monday night a rock crusher was bought through E. G. Richardson from C. M. Scott, of Philadelphia. Mr. Richardson states that the city will now have the finest plant of the smaller cities in the South and that with the rock which is found in great quantities here the city should be able to build excellent streets.

The Street committee is busy on plans looking to the ultimate widening and beautifying of Beach street which was found to be too narrow during the past season for the great number of autos and vehicles which were in the city.

Several of the side streets will also receive needed attention not only in being repaired but the road beds will probably be widened.

It will cost the city about $2,500 to install the crusher but it is certain that the machine will more than pay for itself in a few years by the cheapness with which it will prepare the rock for use.

Reception and Dance.

Mrs. J. C. Howard will give a complimentary reception to her juvenile class Wednesday evening at the Opera House. Exhibition dances will be danced by the class during the evening. Mrs. Howard will be assisted by other talent of high order. Mrs. Spangler's orchestra has been employed for the occasion and all present will be cordially invited to join in the dance from 10 to 12.

Ball Game at Ormond Tomorrow.

The last Stetson University ball team will play the Ormond aggregation two games of ball tomorrow and Saturday. The teams are pretty evenly matched and good games are looked for. Ormond will be somewhat handicapped by the absence of Murray and Rapp, but they have plenty of good material left and confidently expect to win.

Tobacco and Government.

Tobacco has a great deal to do with the governmental affairs of the world. The French Treasury report of the tobacco monopoly for 1904 shows a clear profit of $71,000,000. The Government receipts from tobacco tax in Great Britain last year were $60,000,000. In the United States the Government collects $45,000,000 from tobacco in internal revenue taxes. In Italy tobacco selling is a Government monopoly, and will yield a net profit this year of $45,000,000, and Austria-Hungary expects to collect about the same amount. Through the clouds of smoke a good many ships of war can be discerned booming up. And through the mighty mist the doctors can discover a good many cases of quickened hearts.

Zolfo's Orange Crop.

If all the oranges that have been shipped from Zolfo the past season were loaded on a wagon train, 30 boxes to the wagon, each wagon and horses occupying 20 feet, the wagon train would have to be over eleven and a half miles long to accommodate them; or if all these oranges were loaded on one train, 300 boxes to the car, the train would be about two and one-third miles long. If all the oranges shipped from Zolfo were laid side by side the line would be 819 miles long or three lines could be laid from Zolfo to Jacksonville. If one man sat down to eat oranges and ate one orange each minute for ten hours a day, without missing a minute he would have to keep his seat and eat oranges for 72 years and at the expiration of that time he would still have enough oranges left to pay his funeral expenses and erect a handsome monument to his orange eating abilities. Zolfo Advertiser.

Mrs. W. P. Baya, of Jacksonville, is a guest of the Despland Hotel at this place.

The Briton and Washing.

We have come to look upon water as meant primarily to wash in, as an aid to ablation rather than a thing of beauty. A story of a woman, a fine peasant and will illustrate this. The individual in question had just seen the sea until he was taken to Western super Marie on a "wash" to be washed. Naturally the water was scarce and the rest of the family, the wife and babies as soon as the opportunity was reached gathered about to see how the first sight of the ocean would strike the natural man. Will he be believed that the woman's maid, lying by the view of "the mighty ocean" lying in vast expense because the eyes were those, "if I'd known what they were like, I'd have brought down a lot of soap and had a good wash." The son, or, rather, the soap, had crept so deeply into his soul that he could only conceive the sea as a huge wash-basin. London Times.

Wagner's Shorn Locks.

Wagner, the composer, is a man that became infatuated with his locks and determined to have his hair cut. He accordingly arranged with a barber to perform the operation on a certain day. That worthy assayed to make a good thing of it and informed all his customers of Wagner's impending haircut. Most of them paid him a certain sum down in advance to make sure of a lock of the great man's hair. To the barber's horror, Wagner on the appointed day, when it was over, appropriated the whole of the shorn locks. The barber, in despair, confessed that he had sold them many times over, whenever madam suggested that her husband had hair very much like Wagner's. And the story goes that that night half Dresden slept with the barber's hair under its pillow.

Historic Belle.

The Chesapeake, famous for her encounter with the British ship Shannon in the war of 1812, is still in existence. When she was captured by the British she was taken to England by her captor, Sir Philip Broke, and some years later her timbers were sold. The purchaser was a miller in Wislham, and when he pulled down his old mill he built a new one from the timbers of the Chesapeake. Many of these timbers still have the marks of the Shannon's grapeshot, and in some places the shots are still to be seen deeply imbedded in the pitch pine. The builder, who made this ship, knew that its timbers were being used in a mill which is making money for a subject of Great Britain there is no doubt that he would at least try to rise from his grave to right the wrong.

A Great Painter's Begotting.

Sir Thomas Lawrence was one of the great portrait painters in England. His parents were poor, his father being a country innkeeper. One day Lord Shaftesbury's father and mother stopped at the inn, having their young son, the future lord, with them. In conversation the innkeeper spoke of the genius of his boy in drawing and wished them to test it by a picture of their son. They assented, thinking to gratify a father's pride, but not looking for any evidence of superior talent. The boy came in modestly, with chalk and paper, and in a few minutes had drawn a picture of their son on which the parents looked with wonder. They recognized the genius and the promise of future greatness and befriended the young artist, giving him the help needed to develop his wonderful gift.

The Valuable Palmyra Palm.

A Hindu poem enumerates 800 purposes to which the Palmyra palm alone is put. Among other things it supplies paper for writing upon, an intoxicating drink called "toddy," large quantities of sugar fruit and a vegetable for the table when the plants are young. Palm wine is also obtained from the juice of the sago palm, which yields excellent sugar candy when boiled. The pith of the trunk forms a large part of the food of the natives in many parts of India. Ropes, brushes and brooms are manufactured from the fiber of the leaf stalks.

In Full Dress.

"Gosh all henlock!" snorted Uncle Silas, backing away from the door. "What is the trouble, sir?" queried the footman. "I thought I was getting in the bath."

room, and I come within one of getting right in their to the ladies' dressing room."

"That is not the ladies' dressing room," reassured the footman. "It is the ballroom." Houston Post.

Candid.

Mr. Popinjay—How did you like my acting at our dramatic entertainment? Lady Critical—Well, I don't think you made the most of your opportunities. Mr. Popinjay—You don't think so, eh? Lady Critical—No. You had several opportunities to get off the stage much sooner than you did!—London Opinion.

The Wrong Answer.

A writer in the Strand Magazine on "Clerical Humor" tells of the unusual behavior of a young candidate who, dismissed on the Episcopal doorstep with a solemn "God bless you!" hastily answered, "Don't mention it, my lord!"

Reflected Brightness.

"Why does that congressman say so many more clever things than the rest of us?" "He is shrewd enough to pick out the brightest reporters to interview him." Washington Star.

When an old maid bumps her head against the door in the dark she never has to worry over the way people will wonder if her husband did it. Baltimore American.

Making Fire.

When it is considered how old the world's civilization is it seems surprising that man should have only so very recently learned how to make fire easily. The primitive flint and steel method is practically but of the last generation, and that does not appear so very far ahead of friction with wood. It is not astonishing, on the whole, that savages should commonly suppose that fire really exists in wood and stone since it is from these every-day materials that they secure a portion of Prometheus' precious theft from heaven.

Where Eggs Are Currency.

Eggs are current coin in Mayo, Kory, Donegal and Leitrim. They are everywhere received over the counter in payment for fat, sugar, meal, oil, bread, tobacco, patent medicines and general merchandise. Accounts are kept open and goods supplied on credit in eggs. Predatory agents traveling through the wilds with worthless teas, itinerant tinkers and musicians, hawkers of tinsel jewelry and holy pictures, all accept this current coin, generally unloading it at the nearest railway town. Dublin Lady of the House.

Consoling.

Elderly Woer—I hope you are not impressed by the silly sentimentalists who hold that because you've married once you ought not to marry again? Pretty Widow—Don't let that worry you, dear. I've no such prejudice. My own dear mother was married three times, and I only hope that in all things I may follow her example.

Be Prepared.

A new civilization is holding up new and better prizes, but he who would win must have a better equipment and a finer training than the past required. If the prizes are greater than ever before the preparation also must be greater. He only who is prepared for his chance can hope to succeed. Success Magazine.

Halcyon Days.

The seven days preceding and the seven days following the winter solstice were called by the ancients "halcyon days." This phrase is derived from a fable which sets forth that Halcyone, a princess who grieved so deeply for the loss at sea of her spouse, was sent thither in pity in the form of a halcyon bird or kingfisher.

According to the legend, the halcyon bird had during the time of breeding the power of hilling the waves, and it was believed at this time the sea was always calm and might be navigated in perfect security. Experience, of course, dispelled this fable; but, like many another old world story, it has left behind it a distorted meaning.

In this case the connection between the old and the new significance is clear, for the term, once expressive of peace and calm upon the waters, is equally expressive of tranquillity upon the sea of life.

A Novel Entertainment.

Next Thursday night, March 30, Charles Hammond Frye, the popular lecturer on oriental subjects, will present many features of the Russo-Japanese war in a most realistic manner, at the Daytona Armory. Mr. Frye uses a powerful moving picture machine and stereopticon, with a 1200 candle power light, for showing many of the battles and actual war scenes, taken by artists on the spot. Illustrated songs, and many humorous features enliven the program.

The Tampa Herald said: "Mr. Frye delighted a large audience. The hall was filled to overflowing, and it was indeed a much interested people who followed the words of the speaker and saw by his splendid views conditions at the war front as they really are."

The entertainment is given under the auspices of the Daytona High School, and a large part of the proceeds go to the school library fund. Tickets can be secured from pupils. Admission 25 and 35 cents. A large number of tickets have already been sold and every indication points to an unusually large attendance. Sufficient chairs have been secured to insure comfortable seats for the large crowd.

A Tomoka Party.

The launch Eleanor left this morning for the Tomoka river with Mr. and Mrs. Dumont, Mrs. Hayes, Miss Hayes, Dyett, Miss Beck and her owners, Capt. and Mrs. Seymour aboard.

This is the last trip, for this season at least, that the Eleanor will make. Tomorrow she will be docked at McDonald's boat yard until next season.

The Eleanor has given the guests of The Palmetto many pleasant outings. Capt. Seymour has taken parties to the Inlet, Spruce Creek or the Tomoka river, every day when the weather permitted, thus enabling the visitors to more thoroughly enjoy their visit in the city.

A Pleasant Card Party.

A card party was given by Miss Violet Stubenbord and Mrs. Emma Murphy, at the home of their parents Col. and Mrs. Stubenbord, on North Ridgewood avenue last evening. Those fortunate enough to be present thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. Don C. Morris, Miss Bohannon, Miss Cora Crouch, Miss Stubenbord, Mrs. Murphy, Dr. Bohannon, C. E. Waldeck, Henry Kaiser, and A. H. Schmidt.

Music was furnished throughout the evening and at the completion of the game refreshments were served.

First prizes were won by Miss Crouch and Mr. Waldeck, the second prizes being secured by Miss Bohannon and A. H. Schmidt.

Four People Drowned at Rockledge.

While pleasure riding in a small boat in the Banana River near Rockledge, last Friday, four people out of five who were in the boat were drowned by the capsizing of the boat in a sudden squall that came up.

The unfortunate victims were Mrs. H. G. Miller, of Chataqua, N. Y.; Mr. F. W. O. Moore and daughter, Edith, of Holyoke, Mass., and Mr. A. A. Baldwin, of Georgiana. Mr. Miller, the only one of the five occupants not drowned, drifted down the river about 2 1/2 miles where he was rescued and though still in a very weak and exhausted condition will recover. The accident occurred about 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

The bodies of the four drowned were recovered Sunday afternoon, three were found near the place where they lost their lives while the fourth was found some distance away.

Mrs. MacMillan entertained a few friends at a card party last evening at her residence on Volusia avenue.

Mrs. Hochkiss had the misfortune to run over a negro this morning. From the evidence of eye-witnesses it appears that the negro, who was riding a bicycle, failed to turn to the right on meeting the auto. The bicycle was demolished, but the negro was unhurt.

DAYTONA and its Attractions.

Round trip.....4.40

DAYTONA is situated upon the west bank of the Halifax River at its widest expanse and midway between its source at Boley Bay and its outlet at Mosquito Inlet. It is in latitude 29° twenty-four miles from St. Augustine and one mile from the Atlantic Ocean, and is acknowledged to be without a rival for beauty among the villages of the South. Its site is upon what is known as high Pamlico land that was crowned by a pine with a most royal growth of majestic forest trees, and among these trees is the town of today, with its beautiful cottages and well-kept walks and streets. The result is that all along the wide avenues that intersect the town are lovely live and water oaks and hickories, many of them draped with graceful festoons of the gray Spanish moss, that overarch the street and walks, and among these are interspersed tall tropical palmettos, glossy leaved magnolias, fragrant bay and coral-berried holly, and many other varieties, while in many places the wild grape, the trumpet vine and the amplexifolius climb and cling among the branches forming shady bowers and adding grace and beauty.

The town lies parallel with the Halifax River, and extends for nearly two miles along the shore. This river is the delight of the angler and the yachtsman and forms one of the town's greatest attractions. The main avenues that run parallel with or intersect the river are all 100 feet wide, except Beach Street, which is about sixty-five feet, but has a half mile of open, beautiful water abutting upon its eastern side, where the salt waves ebb and flow and along and across which comes the cooling, invigorating and health-giving breezes from off the wide Atlantic, which temper and render the Halifax climate one of the most perfect in the world. Daytona has many miles of well-graded, macadam and shell roads and streets, rendering it the

and added to these, but a mile away, are thirty miles of smooth, hard beach, that affords an unrivalled course for long distance cycling and driving or automobile racing. No town of equal size, North or South, numbers so many wheelmen, and cycling is a favorite pastime with the tourists summer and winter.

The Beautiful Cottages that have been erected during the past years and are being built are rendering Daytona as famous for its fine homes as for its beautiful river, trees and avenues, and they are adding yearly to its attractions.

Not the least of these attractions to those securing homes in the South, and ranking second only to healthfulness and perfection of climate, is the fact that its population is chiefly composed of cultivated and intelligent people, accustomed to the refinements of home and social life. Added to these features are good churches, good public and private schools, stores, hotels, laundry, meat markets, novelty works, an opera house, electric lights for street and house illumination, a good telephone system, ice factory, Lily Water Works, and hot and cold baths, etc., and everything else can be procured that is necessary to make life comfortable. An important feature in the healthfulness of this town is the

which is derived from numerous flowing wells, of which there are probably 300 in the corporate limits. This flow is secured by boring wells to the depth of from 80 to 120 feet, passing through several strata of rock, and this depth assures purity from all surface contamination. The water is slightly impregnated with magnesia and iron, and holds sulphur in the shape of gas, which soon passes away.

The Population of Daytona proper is about 1,800. Added to this is a suburban population on main shore and peninsula of about 1,000 at Kingston, Blake, Old Seabreeze or Goodall, Seabreeze and Silver Beach, which are properly a part of the town and population.

Daytona Beach
lies one mile east of the town. It is approached by three good bridges over the river and well-graded avenues, and is the principal summer resort south of St. Augustine. It has more tourists during the summer than all other places south of that city combined, and is also becoming a favorite winter resort. The beach is wide, firm and smooth, by many considered the finest in the world, and the surf bathing is safe and excellent summer and winter. People who have tried Northern and Western summer resorts declare that there are none so perfect in comfort as Daytona beach.

Automobile Race Meet.
The Florida East Coast Automobile Association conducts an annual race meet on the beach, which has now a universal reputation as the greatest automobile race course in the world. The Daytona-Ormond Beach is hard as macadam, and an ideal stretch of thirty or more miles without a break makes it the natural racing ground for America.

At low tide the beach is bare for 300 feet and neither carriage wheel, bicycle or pedestrian can make a hardly visible imprint on the smooth and well-packed sand. It is no common sight to see sail-rigged bicycles speeding with the velocity of the wind before a stiff breeze along the smooth beach, thus affording the most exhilarating sport known to man. Besides these, miles of hard-shelled, palm-fringed boulevards bring the lovers of the wheel and vehicles into direct touch with the mainland over the broad bridges which span the splendid Halifax River.

The beach from the sandy bluffs to the lowest point at ebbside, measures about 500 feet, and the average depth of the surf measures about two feet. A continuous gentle swell rolls in from the ocean from one to two feet in depth under normal conditions, making the beach an attractive and absolutely safe place for surf-bathing. Here the infant as well as the gray-haired veteran of many summers, can safely enjoy the luxury of a sea bath throughout the larger part of the year, while the strong and expert swimmer, an venture out further to test his strength and skill in battling with the inexhaustible powers of the mighty sea.

The Peninsula
lying between river and ocean is one half mile wide, and is being rapidly improved, and there are many fine cottages and several good hotels, a opera house, two ocean piers, beach pavilion and a large casino.

A Remarkable Feature of Daytona has been the yearly improvement in the style and value of the buildings that are being erected or homes. Men of capital of the North and West have become awakened to its advantages for winter residences, and valuable lots are being purchased and costly houses, beautiful in design and finish, are being erected, and beautiful homes, the abodes of wealth and culture are multiplying. Seabreeze (City Beautiful) and Goodall are settlements on the Ocean side of the peninsula across the Halifax River from Daytona.

At the foot of Ocean Boulevard, Seabreeze, a pier reaches 600 feet across the beach into the swelling surf of the ocean. This pier is a favorite resort of those who delight in the sport of fishing. The surf here abounds in trout, pompano, yellowtail, cavalle, whiting, drum, sheepshead and many other varieties of edible fish. During the fall season the famous sea bass affords royal sport, and it has been no uncommon occurrence to land a thousand pounds of this gamey fish in an afternoon, individuals of them ranging from fifteen to thirty-five pounds in weight. Not only does the ocean offer this splendid sport but the Halifax River, only half a mile back of the ocean, is equally famous for its fine fishing, and the varieties that abound in the ocean are present in the river.

Hunting and fishing good. Experienced guides and dogs may be had at reasonable prices.
